

Introducing An Exclusive New Service for Liability Program Members

Employment Practices Hotline

When does this service start?

- The program went into effect on January 1, 2008.

What is it?

- It's a hotline for employment practices questions and/or problems covered by the JPIA Memorandum of Liability Coverage (MOLC).

What services are included?

- A direct link to JPIA staff with referral to a labor attorney if necessary.
- Live phone conversation with a labor attorney (up to 30 minutes per incident).
- A referral list of public agency labor attorneys and investigators.

Who can use the hotline?

- General managers and human resources staff of ACWA/JPIA Liability Program members.

What does it cost?

- There's no extra cost; it's provided as part of the Liability Program premium.

How does it work?

- Call 800.231.5742, extension 8855.
- Ask to speak to Nancy Stangel or Dick Damon or leave a message.
- They will assist you with your question/problem or refer you to a labor attorney and give you a referral number.

How often can I use the hotline?

